

Celebrate the release of a seminal book and a remarkable life

Sunday, July 24, 2011, 2pm

JCCNC
1840 Sutter Street
San Francisco, CA

Unlike so many memoirs now flooding the market, this is one that genuinely merited being written and published. Although modest about his many diverse accomplishments, Chuman has fashioned an autobiographical narrative that not only starkly illuminates the Nisei generation's steeply challenging life course, but also serves as a robust embodiment of the saying "You only live once, but if you work it right, once is enough."

—Arthur A. Hansen
Prof. Emeritus of History & Asian American Studies, CA State University, Fullerton

Seminal! I really enjoyed reading this book, and recommend it highly! I have always admired Frank Chuman. I have his book Bamboo People on my shelf, and have turned to it many times before a lecture or while I'm writing. Now Manzanar and Beyond reveals Frank's hidden yet pivotal role in the 1980s Redress Movement.

—Lane Ryo Hirabayashi
The George & Sakaye Aratani Professor and Endowed Chair, UCLA

This memoir is an important and highly readable addition to Nisei narratives about their experiences in the United States before, during and after the World War II...It also is the story of those Americans who refused to be intimidated by anti-Japanese sentiment pervasive in some parts of this country and who treated Japanese Americans with respect and kindness.

—Taunya Lovell Banks
Jacob A. France Professor of Equality Jurisprudence
University of Maryland School of Law

A life Interrupted by the Japanese American Internment
Manzanar

A legal career begun in the aftermath
Supporting
Japanese Americans in Recovery

Justice found for Fred Korematsu and others with a little known legal writ

Coram Nobis

Author of an acclaimed legal history book
Bamboo People
The Law and Japanese Americans

Examine the well-lived life of
Frank F. Chuman

Asian American Curriculum Project, Inc. (AAP)
650.375.8286 – aacp@asianamericanbooks.com
AsianAmericanBooks.com

Funding for this book made possible by the Henri and Tomoye Takahashi Charitable Foundation